ABOUT THE CHIPSTEAD PLAYERS

Founded in 1924, the Chipstead Players have a long history of presenting plays in the village. For many years these took place in the village hall but we were fortunate to be able to buy the freehold of what is now The Courtyard Theatre and with the enthusiasm of the members, to convert a dilapidated stable block into a beautiful 98-seat theatre. We opened the theatre in Spring 1995 and have since performed a wide variety of plays, usually to capacity houses. With a current membership of around 300, we present seven productions a year, including two youth productions. You will see below that there are many ways of getting involved with the Players and every contribution is valued. So that members are kept in touch, we publish a regular newsletter Noises Off which details social events and auditions, and includes priority ticket application forms when they are released. Our foyer bar opens on production nights and there is also a club bar open to members on Sundays from 12 noon to 2.00 pm. And, of course, there is our all-important website: www.chipsteadplayers.org.
