ABOUT THE CHIPSTEAD PLAYERS

Founded in 1924, The Chipstead Players have a long history of presenting plays in Chipstead, Surrey and for many years these productions took place in the village hall. However, in 1976 we were able to buy the freehold of a dilapidated stable block and with the enthusiasm and commitment of the members and funded entirely by them, this was transformed into the lovely space which is now The Courtyard Theatre. Opening in the Spring of 1995, we have since staged a wide variety of plays and currently present seven productions a year, including two youth productions. Data Protection (GDPR): Members are advised that their membership records will be held in electronic form. These records will be kept confidential and solely for the purpose of administration of The Chipstead Players. The membership records will not be disclosed to any person outside the membership of The Chipstead Players and then only to persons who need the subject information in order to carry out their duties in connection with the administration of the society. The names (but no other details) of cast members and their photos may be placed on The Chipstead Players website for publicity purposes. We will request your formal agreement to this if you are cast in a play.

Child Protection: We have a child protection policy which is designed to protect all young people attending The Courtyard Theatre. There is a list of good practice guidelines, displayed on the Youth Theatre notice board. All adults should make sure that they are familiar with these guidelines. In order to comply with Child Protection Regulations, it is the policy of Chipstead Players to ask any adult member likely to be working with, or in close proximity to, youth members, to complete a DBS (Disclosure & Barring Service) enquiry form. Your application to join Chipstead Players is taken to indicate your willingness to complete the form should the Trustees deem such an action appropriate.

Equal Opportunity: No application for membership will be treated less favourably than another on the grounds of race, gender, marital status, nationality, ethnic or national origin, colour, creed, age, disabilities or sexual identity.
